Excerpt: . . . 11 The 6-month moratorium allowed the FDIC to evaluate public and industry comments, assess developments in the industry, and consider how to best supply the Corporations statutory powers for oversight of these charters. It is clear that the most significant concern regarding ILCs is their ownership by companies engaged in non-financial activities. Based on the FDICs analysis, the FDIC Board recently voted to extend the moratorium for an additional year. Under the extended moratorium, the FDIC will not take any action on any application for deposit insurance or any change in control notice for any ILC that would be controlled by a company primarily engaged in commercial activities. Although commercially owned ILCs have not resulted in serious problems to date, the FDIC will continue to closely monitor existing ILCs that currently are controlled by commercial companies in light...
