Jones, President of Wilberforce University Wilberforce, Ohio: On the Occasion of the Anniversary Celebration of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, at Metropolitan Church, Washington, D. C., Tuesday Evening, March 31, 1908 Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I thank you very much for the splendid audience which you have furnished me to-night. I thank you for the opportunity to appear in the city of Washington after a sojourn from this city of more than twenty years. I was a student at one time in my history at Howard University. It was while I was at that university that I imbibed from great men such as Dr. Patten and others, many of the inspirations that went with me through the more than twenty years of my meanderings and hard labors, and I come back to-night with precious memories of those great men to greet not only this audience, but, on to-morrow, to go back to that sacred spot. It is true that I have not visited...
