HHS provided relatively little oversight specific to state spending under Federal Oversight subpart 1. HHS does not collect data on subpart 1 expenditures, relying Insufficient to Ensure instead on cursory reviews of plans submitted by states that discuss how they intend to use their subpart 1 funds in the coming year. HHS regional State Compliance officials reported that they review these plans for relatively limited with Title IV-B purposes because there are few restrictions on how states can spend subpart 1 dollars. We also found that HHS regional offices had paid little Spending attention to statutory limits in states planned use of subpart 1 funds. In Requirements under response to our survey, 10 states reported actual 2002 subpart 1 expenditures that exceeded the spending limits by over 15 million in Subpart 1 total.
