Dept. of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)46778842 Subject: Juvenile corrections -- United States -- Planning -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . Chapter 1: The Technical Assistance Process Table 1: c Agreement Among Mission, Vision, Goals, and Objectives Strrtaeg The Central City Corrections Agency will provide services for juvenile offenders that ensure public safety, hold youth accountable for their unlawful behavior, and build competencies so they may become productive and law-abiding citizens. ytrtaeg This program strives to improve community safety by conducting risk assessments on juvenile offenders so those (and only those) who present a danger to public safety are removed from the community. Aaci og By the end of the next fiscal year, the agency will select or develop an assessment instrument, institute the assessment process, and document that all new youth entering the program are appropriately assessed. npsP () tTPrg Staff will collect and review juvenile assessment instruments from other agencies, juvenile justice organizations, commercial companies, and literature reviews. Staff will develop an assessment protocol that includes the instrument to use and assessment procedures to conduct. Program records will be audited annually to assess compliance with the assessment process, identify placement decisions made based on assessments, and document the outcome of placement decisions. Aaci mg Intake staff will make appropriate placement decisions based on findings from the assessment process and will decrease out-of-community placements by 20 percent. npsP () tTPrg Intake staff will document the community safety issues for each out-of-community placement made. Only youth with documented public safety concerns will be placed in...
