Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Instructions to Examining Surgeons: Approved January 3, 1916 This book is presented to the examining surgeons of the Bureau of Pensions for their guidance in the performance of their duties. To insure completeness and uniformity in the examination of applicants and for purposes of record, it is necessary to have a definite and comprehensive method of procedure. This edition supersedes all others and should be carefully read. Boards of Surgeons. (1) Surgeons are appointed by the Commissioner of Pensions under authority of the law which provides: That the Commissioner of Pensions is hereby authorized to appoint surgeons who, under his control and direction, shall make such examination of pensioners and claimants for pension or increased pension as he shall require; and he shall organize boards of surgeons, to consist of three members each, at such points in each State as he shall deem necessary, and all examinations, so far as practicable, shall be made by the boards, and no examination shall be made by one surgeon excepting under such circumstances as make it impracticable for a claimant to present himself before a board. (2) After appointment the members of the board must organize by selecting a president, secretary, and treasurer. The place of meeting should also be determined upon and the bureau promptly notified. The member whose handwriting is most legible should be selected as secretary. (3) The place of meeting should not be changed without permission of the Commissioner of Pensions, and such place should be centrally located and readily accessible to claimants, with comfortable accommodations for those obliged to wait. (4) Boards must endeavor to meet promptly at the time agreed upon, which...
