The two things which the Protectionist has incorporated into his policy and which are denied by the Free-Trader are: 1st. That diversity of industry increases production, both in quantity and quality. Hence it necessarily follows by the laws of trade that as production is increased the commodity is cheapened, either directly by a decline in price, or indirectly by an increased purchasing power of other commodities. 2d. That Protection tends to develop and maintain this diversified industrial condition, thus increasing capital and wages. Man cannot make the plant grow, but he can place the seed in such conditions that, by the laws of its own being, it must grow and yield fruit after its...
