Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Canning of Fishery Products: Showing the History of the Art of Canning When I began my active fishery career there were but few persons who knew much about the art of canning fishery products, and these were chary about imparting what they knew to others, who might, in time, develop into competitors. On many occasions I was approached by seekers after information along these lines, and in endeavoring to help them I soon discovered that there was not then, and the same holds true today, available any work which treated at length and fully upon the canning of fishery products, and that what little had been published was in very fragmentary shape and inaccurate in many ways. Appreciating the great need of such a work, I began some years ago to collect data for same, and an intimate connection with the fishing industry of the United States for twenty-four years - part of that time as editor of the Pacific Fisherman of Seattle, Wash., the organ of the great fisheries of the Pacific, and as a practical canner, but mainly as Field Agent of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, in the course of which I have visited, some of them many times, practically every fishing camp and packing plant in the United States proper, Alaska and Hawaii, also various plants in Canada and Mexico - greatly aided the work. Most of the processes described have been developed in the canneries, where they have stood the test of many years actual work. The book is written for the cannery operator, and not for chemists or bacteriologists, and as a result has been made as...
