Sometimes a knowledge of history is required for the right understanding of passages. (Acts ix, 31): The churches had rest throughout all Judea and Galilee has sometimes been understood to have been the consequence of the conversion of Paul, whereas the real cause of this temporary rest was that at this time Caligula attempted to raise a statue of himself in the Holy of holies in the temple. The consternation which this caused among the bloodthirsty Jews made them for a time forget the Christian churches. Nor less important is a knowledge of ancient chronology, geography, of botany, of mineralogy, zoology, and archeology in its various branches. But we cannot here multiply instances. To understand the Bible, even the plainest translation, all these things are necessary as helps, and yet, without the Spirit of God to lead into all...
